TEACHING RECORD

Began teaching at Columbia College Chicago at age 23 and holds a Bachelor's degree and an Honorary Doctorate of Arts from the college. Instructor at LAAMP, the Los Angeles music school founded by Stargate, for more than five years. Founder of Internz University, which runs a weekly live production class, youth programs (Little Internz, Kosine Sessions Kids), and artist-development curriculum. TEDx speaker at Columbia College Chicago. Guest lecturer at USC Thornton, Arizona State (PROX), and Loyola Marymount in 2026.

CREDITS STUDENTS RECOGNIZE

As one half of Da Internz: Rihanna "Birthday Cake," Nicki Minaj "Anaconda," Big Sean "A$$," Trap Beckham "Birthday Chick" (RIAA Platinum, 2026), and work with Nas, John Legend, Justin Bieber, and Usher. Music producer for FOX's Empire and Star, then a lead acting role on Star. On-air personality for Apple Music, broadcasting to more than 110 countries.

COURSE: MUSIC PRODUCTION INTENSIVE (8 WEEKS)

Wk	Session
1	The Room: DAW setup, signal chain, session hygiene, saving everything
2	Drums and Bounce: groove, swing, the 808, regional feel
3	Chords and Keys: reharmonize rules, playing what you cannot play yet
4	Sampling and Flips: clearing, chopping, making it yours
5	Songwriting with the Beat: topline, hook, structure, reference cuts
6	Recording the Artist: vocal chain, comping, running a session
7	Mix and Master basics: what the pro mixer needs from you
8	The Business of the Beat: splits, registration, publishing, the 20 doors a song walks through

Adapts to 4, 6, 10, or 16 weeks; to high school, college, or community formats; to one-day masterclasses.

WHAT STUDENTS LEAVE WITH

A finished record, a split sheet with their name on it, a registered work, and the working habits of a professional room. Every student learns the business the day the song exists, not after.

EQUIPMENT

Logic Pro, Ableton, or Pro Tools; any classroom with speakers and a projector works. Brings his own controller and reference library. Studio access is welcome, not required.
